9.3 BETs

9.3.1. Definitions

A Single or Multiple bet is the choice of one or more results, within multiples possible outcomes in a sports event.

The Betting Slips contains all the selected bets registered by the player with one or more possible outcomes.

A single bet contains only one selection, which must be a winning one, in order for your bet to win. The possible returns are calculated by multiplying the value of your bet by the odd available.

A multiple bet contains between 2 and 12 different selections and all must be winners in order for this betting slip be a winning one. If a single outcome is lost, the entire betting slip is considered lost.

The odd of the multi-bet is the result of the multiplication of the odds values available in the betting slip for each of the selected events. The potential returns is the result of the odd multiplied for the bet made.

Example: If you bet 5 euros that Porto will beat Benfica (odds=1,5), and that Sporting will beat Braga (odds=2). The final odds will be: $1,5 \times 2 = 3$ and the total winnings will be 15 Euros (5 euros \times 1,5 \times 2), if Porto and Sporting both wins.

If Benfica wins and Sporting draw, this is a losing bet.

If one of the selected bets from the multi bet slip is cancelled, the winnings are calculated based on the remaining odds, if all are won.

9.3.2 Betting Slip Registration

A placed bet will only be valid after its acceptance by ESTORIL SOL DIGITAL. Each valid bet will generate a reference and the bet amount will be immediately debited from the player's account. Bets will not be valid if there are not enough funds in your account.

It is the customer's responsibility to ensure that the details of their bets are correct. Once the bets have been placed, they cannot be canceled by the customer.

The only accepted currency to place bets on ESTORIL SOL DIGITAL is Euro.

All bet selections are subject to limits set by ESTORIL SOL DIGITAL.

Bets will be settled, based on the official final results of the event(s), as soon as possible, as a rule up to one hour after the end of the event(s), any winnings will be credited to the Player's account.

If a bet is settled incorrectly and returns credited to the player's account, ESTORIL SOL DIGITAL reserves the right to correct the bet by withdrawing the wrong amount credited to the player's account.

9.3.3 Error Correction

All odds are subject to variation and become permanent when a bet is placed. However, ESTORIL SOL DIGITAL reserves the right at any time to correct obvious errors in the insertion of the betting odds, or to cancel bets based on odds that are incorrect.

ESTORIL SOL DIGITAL is not responsible for any obvious error odds display, results or any other data, and any player can make any claim for compensation as a result of such error.

9.3.4 Bet Limits

The maximum and minimum amount authorized for all sports bets is set by ESTORIL SOL DIGITAL, which reserves the right to change it without prior notice. In addition, ESTORIL SOL DIGITAL also reserves the right at any time to impose limits on matches or events.

If the potential winnings of a bet exceed the defined win limits, ESTORIL SOL DIGITAL will inform you of the maximum win amount for that same bet.

9.3.5 Late bets

If, for any reason, an early bet is accepted inadvertently after the match has already begun, bets will be void, and the bet amount will be refunded. The same applies to betting on selections whose result is already known at the time the bet is placed.

9.3.6 Return

If a bet is void, the bet amount will be returned to the player. In the case of a "simple bet", it implies that the player will recover the amount of his bet. For "multiple bets," total factor will be modified taking into account the annulment of the selection in question.

9.3.7 Suspension of an Event

An event will be deemed to have been suspended if canceled earlier than the minimum time set for the competition to which it belongs. If the event is permanently suspended, it will be deemed to have been canceled and all bets will be refunded. * Please Check Betting Rules.

9.3.8 Changes in the beginning of the Event

If an event start time is changed, all bets on this event will be returned unless otherwise stated in the Betting Rules.

9.3.9 Changes to the Event Location

If an event is changed to a location that is considered "neutral territory", bets remain valid and the odds do not change. Bets will be void if the "field of play" is changed to the first belonging to the visiting team.

9.3.10 Bets Results

ESTORIL SOL DIGITAL will check the results of an event based on the official final results announced at the end of the competition. Bets will be settled based on the results published on the ESTORIL SOL DIGITAL site on site "results". However, in case of discrepancies in the results issued by more than one official source, or in the case of an obvious error, ESTORIL SOL DIGITAL reserves the right to determine the final outcome of the bet.

Any complaints regarding the accuracy of results shown on the websites of ESTORIL SOL DIGITAL, should be based on official results (in particular, the results shown on the websites of official agencies responsible for the event).

During the broadcast of live events, the results considered valid will be those immediately announced at the end of the event / competition. Any changes, subsequent to these results, will be disregarded to determine the winning bets.

If an event / tournament is suspended, this suspension will not affect settled bets for previously determined markets.

If a game is definitely considered unfinished, all bets placed on the game will be canceled and returned, unless otherwise stated, including when the results are considered final at the end of the interruption.

Unless stated otherwise in the Betting Rules, the result announced on the date of a match is what will be taken into account to determine the winning bets.

Any subsequent changes to the result by the official or disciplinary authorities will not be considered to determine the winner of the bets.

9.3.10.1 Dead-Heats

When there is a dead-heat between two or more selections (being declared the winner two or more participants), the stake money is proportioned according to the number of teams included in the dead-heat and paid with full odds.

9.3.11 Collusion and Unions

Players must place their bets individually. If there is evidence of a set of bets placed by a customer or group of customers that results in guaranteed profits for the customer regardless of the outcome, either individually or as part of a group, those same bets may be declared null and void by ESTORIL SOL DIGITAL at any time, including after the event.

9.3.12 Fraudulent Competition

If there are any suspect of fraud, match-fixing or other irregularities that may compromise the integrity of a bet, the event in question will be suspended from the list of events and bets on this event will not be validated. Bets may be void.

9.3.13 Bet cancellation

ESTORIL SOL DIGITAL reserves the right, at its discretion, to declare a bet totally or partially canceled, namely in the following situations:

- In case of software failure that is or may have been detected by the betting provider and / or ESTORIL SOL DIGITAL;
- In the case of results directly or indirectly affected by criminal actions;
- In the case of a public announcement made in relation to a bet that significantly changes the odds or in the event of a public announcement of the results during the betting verification period;
- In the case of bets where an account holder, or parties acting in association with the account holder, directly or indirectly influence the outcome of an event.
- Whereas there has been any collusion between players or between these and third parties, or attempted collusion, to obtain an illegitimate gain to self or by using the player account;
- When ESTORIL SOL DIGITAL has indications that the User has violated one or more clauses of the General Terms and Conditions of Use available on the website;
- When the player is unable to play or pass to be one of the situations that the law, regulations or the site use of standards cominem with such impediment.
- Incorrect Fixture - Where an incorrect player or team is quoted within a fixture all bets in that selection will be void.

In addition, if an event has just been canceled or postponed, bets may be held for a certain period of time originally planned for the event in accordance with the sports regulations for which the bet was placed.

9.3.14 Betting Rules

Any additional information or rules about bets, related to a specific type of sport, will be summarized in the Betting Rules.

In the event of a contradiction between these general betting provisions and the Betting Rules, the later shall prevail.

9.3.15 Bet Particularities
